CODE OF ETHICS

All of our clothing is made ethically and locally in Auckland, New Zealand.

We are a gender neutral brand, celebrating the freedom of non-binary perspectives. Whoever chooses to express themselves through our clothing is welcome, regardless of their gender identity.

We are a size inclusive brand, catering to NZ size 6 to 22. If you cannot find your size, simply fill out a made to order form and have the garment made just for you.

We have a sustainable approach to making and stand behind the slow fashion movement. This means we only produce limited runs or made to order pieces. Any item you buy is one of a handful ever made.

We follow a zero discrimination policy based on race, gender, sexual orientation, or size. Engaging in homophobic, racist, body-shaming, misogynistic narratives will not be tolerated.

Returns policy: Items can be returned within 3 days of purchase. No returns policy on any garments made to order.
